A CHECKLIST OF
THE PAPERS OF
THE HINDE FAMILY

SASKATCHEWAN ARCHIVES BOARD, SASKATOON 1992

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction i
A. Diaries and Memoirs. 1
B. Letters. 1
C. Farm and Ranch 1
D. Other. 2

INTRODUCTION

The Hinde family--Joseph (1863-1957) and Martha (1869-1953) and their children--arrived in Canada from England in 1912. They settled among fellow Quakers in the Halcyonia district, near Borden, Saskatchewan, where Martha's brother, Hugh Wake, had lived since 1904. In time their farm expanded into a large livestock business operating under the name "Valley Springs Ranch." Henry Wake Hinde, better known as "Harry," took over the operation in partnership with his brother-in-law Wesley Ingram in the 1950s.

The family papers, comprising 36 cm of shelf space, are quite varied in content. They concentrate on H.W. "Harry" Hinde (1902-1981) and his ranching activities, but they also include letters addressed primarily to his parents Joseph and Martha. Diaries, notes, letters and memoirs of Henry's siblings are also found in the papers, those brothers and sisters being Alfred, Elsie (Mrs. Wesley Ingram), Leonard, Joseph E. (Bob), Winnifred (Mrs. Merlin Channess), Daisy (Mrs. Eric Lund), as well as Edith and her husband Edward McCheane. Other notable family documents include letters and a notebook belonging to Martha's parents, Henry Thomas Wake and his wife Lydia, 1854-1877.

Besides documenting the life of a farm and ranching family in Saskatchewan, the Hinde family papers reflect their adherence to and involvement in the Society of Friends. Their Quaker contacts remained intact between Canada and England long after their emigration.

These materials were donated to the Saskatchewan Archives Board under Accession Nos. S84-196, S85-131, S85-185, S85-221, S85-229, S86-19 and S86-98. Photographs, tape recordings and maps included with the papers have been shelved separately.
