About this records creator:

Authorized Heading Leader (Sask.), 1917-

Brief Bio./Admin. History Leader is an urban municipality located 30 kilometres east of the Saskatchewan/Alberta border in southwestern Saskatchewan. The town, originally named Prussia, was incorporated on May 1, 1917. The name of the town was changed to Leader on November 1, 1917. The town has a population of 881 and is currently (2007) administered by a mayor, six councilors, and an administrator.

Biographical Sketch/Administrative History The Town of Prussia was an urban municipality incorporated on May 1, 1917. The name of the town was changed to Leader on November 1, 1917. Leader is an agricultural based community located thirty kilometres east of the Saskatchewan/Alberta border in southwestern Saskatchewan. It is located on NE21-22-26-W3 in Happyland Rural Municipality No. 231.

The town is governed by an elected council that can hire staff to manage daily administration and maintain municipal services, such as roads, utilities and recreation facilities. The responsibilities of the council include enforcing bylaws; waste collection/landfill; fire protection; maintaining public utilities, roads and streets; issuing tax and assessment notices and collecting taxes and other fees.

The town is currently (2007) administered by a mayor, six councilors and an administrator. Councilors sit on various committees, as follows: General Government Services; Protective Services; Transportation Services; Environmental Health and Development; Recreation and Cultural Services and Utilities.
